

Session Notes / Instructions

Concerning all Imbalances: Support given in the custom remedy/ tincture (designed by the scan) for all imbalances. *

Please note: If there has been a surgical procedure completed on the body in the past, that organ/area will most likely resonate as stressed.

Concerning all Viruses, Bacteria and Fungi: Support given in the custom remedy / tincture (designed by the scan) to help neutralize all imbalances in this category. Reducing food sensitivities and staying away from foods that reduce immune function are key.

Concerning all Flower Essences: These are part of the emotional support of the homeopathic remedy.

Concerning Amino Acids, Cell Salts and/or Polycrests: These are homeopathic remedies that are for specific symptom(s) which are listed in a description at the end of the report.

*All of the above listed are based off of the sample results. Each custom remedy / tincture included in the report is tested individually as well as together. They are combined into 1 custom remedy / tincture bottle in liquid form, designed specifically for you by the test.

Concerning colors and their meaning: Please see the color key chart in main report of scan. This will show what color correlates with balance as well as where there is too high or low of conductivity.

Green Zone: Ideal zone showing a balanced reading. Absolute balance of any tissue or organ system.

Blue Zone: Acceptable, border of low to normal.

Purple Zone: Low conductivity, energetic suppression, low energy.

Yellow Zone: Acceptable range, starting to head up into too much conductivity/ inflammation.

Red Zone: Too much conductivity or inflammatory state.
